

Generation Texas Week

November 26-30, 2018

MONDAY - Wear a Bozman or feeder zone shirt.

Transitions Day: So what's after high school? College? Career? More training? How can they transition into that next phase most efficiently?

TUESDAY – Wear any college shirt.

Back to Your Future Day: Teachers will talk about their college experience and the path they chose to get their degree.

WEDNESDAY – Wear “bling” or green.

Paying my Way: So, college and training costs money. Where can I find help? . What about scholarships? Tune in to morning announcements to find out what teachers went to college on scholarships!

THURSDAY – Wear camo to support our military as one of the many career choices beyond college.

If Not College, What? - Military/vocational school/apprenticeship/on-the-job training. There are many choices – but we do know that more preparation will be necessary.

FRIDAY – Dress up to match your future career.

The Emphasis is Careers – Student and teachers discuss career goals and options “If I hadn't been a teacher, I would have been....”
